Paul & Sharon Ellis Missionaries in Mongolia

Please pray for the Mongolian Presidential Election held on May 24th.

Nambaryn
Enkhbayar

Tsakhiagiin
Elbegdorj

The candidates are the incumbent president Nambaryn Enkhbayar from the Mongolian People's Revolutionary Party (Communist party) and the former prime minister Tsakhiagiin Elbegdorj from the Democratic Party, with backing from the Civil Will Party and Mongolian Green Party. (These three parties have united to try to get their endorsed candidate elected.)

"Do you want change?"

is the slogan for the democratic presidential candidate running against the communist, incumbent President. All over the capital of Ulaanbaatar, there are signs attached to buildings just like the ones pictured above. Change is the key for this nation. Tsakhiagiin Elbegdorj seeks to produce a political change ending corruption and unfair practices in government. However, real change can only come from Jesus. Buddha and Buddhism offers no hope. But with Jesus as Lord and Savior, the Mongolians can be truly transformed and their eternal destiny forever changed! Pray for this spiritual transformation to take place!
