Paul & Sharon Ellis Serving in Mongolia

June 2009— "Training Center"

Mongolian A/G Training Center Graduation

Twenty Mongolian students graduated completing three years of Bible courses at the "Training Center." Please pray the Lord will help them faithfully serve through-out Mongolia to impact this nation for God.

August 2009— Work Visa Granted

Sharon has been granted a work visa to teach at the American School of Ulaanbaatar. In addition to obtaining our family visa, this job assignment has given Sharon the opportunity to instruct the children of prominent Mongolian business leaders' including the Mongolian President and several Parliament leaders.

Our daughters, Jerilyn and Jenette are attending this international school. They are excited about the opportunity of influencing their classmates for Christ.

July 2009—Floods

Heavy rains sustained over a period of two weeks caused serious damage in Ulaanbaatar.

Floodwaters crushed homes displacing 100's of families.

Flood waters brought unsanitary conditions.

Rain waters were at abnormally high levels causing damage to the infrastructure of some buildings and literally immobilizing parts of Ulaanbaatar ~ the capital.
